Hungarian Couple Urges Stocking Of Grayling In Ausable's North Branch

Sees Stream As Perfect Water For The Grayling

A chance to again flock a trout stream with a fly was a great experience for Mr. and Mrs. B. Magyary-Kossa, now of Detroit and formerly of Hungary. They spent from June 24 to July 2 in Crawford County, mostly in Frederick and Lovells and fished the Manistee, main stream of the Ausable and the North Branch.

The couple arrived by bus in Frederick at 4:30 a. m. on June 24. They stayed at the Hotel and taken to their quarters. Later that day, Chester "Stub" Burke drove them out for a try at the trout on the main stream and Manistee. Later in the week, they went to Lovells and stayed at

Nielson, Millikin On Board; Two Proposals Defeated

Light Vote Cast In First Regular School District Election Monday

Frederic District Passes Two Millage Proposals

Melvin K. Nielson of Grayling with 173 votes and LeRoy Millikin, incumbent of Beaver Creek with 155 votes were elected to the Grayling Board of Education in Monday's election. A light vote of 236 ballots were cast in this first regular election for the school district. It was estimated that more than 1,000 registered voters reside within the district which covers all of the City of Grayling, most all of the Township of Grayling and parts of Beaver Creek Township. Herbert S. Wolff of Grayling Township, the third man in the race, received 49 votes.

Both proposals on separate ballots were defeated by margins of 2 to 1. Proposal No. 1 received 135 "no" votes to 69 "yes". Proposal No. 2 had 61 "no" to 69 "yes". Proposal No. 1 stated "shall Crawford County Fourth Class School District No. 1 levy three mills on taxable property within the said district for the years 1957, 1958, 1959, 1960 for the purpose of making improvements to the school building in said district". Proposal No. 2 was to impose the raise in the total tax rate limitation to allow the increase to be spread over the tax rolls. The extra raised money would have gone for the finishing of the remodeling in the old building but more important would have assured the Grayling Schools of participating in State Aid to the extent of 100 percent. Under a new formula, State Aid will be

KIDDIES' PICTURES TAKEN FREE FOR PUBLICATION

There Is No Age Limit. There is No Obligation

Friday, July 13, is the big shooting day! On that date the Avalanche is having pictures taken of children who are brought by their parents or guardians to Shoppingtons Annex between noon and 8 p. m. United Studios of Elk Rapids, Indiana, experienced children's photographers, equipped with the latest in speed lighting will be in charge of photography. The Avalanche wants a picture of your child to print in its forthcoming feature, Kiddie Kalendar, a series of photographic studies of local children. The more we get, the better the feature to the cooperation of all mothers and fathers is urged!

It seems as though they're with us such a short while, the first missing tooth, that Kiddie Kalendar wants to preserve them for you for all time. Join the fun of seeing your child's picture included with his playmates in the paper.

There is absolutely no charge or obligation for taking the pictures. Parents don't even have to be a subscriber to the Avalanche. Selection of the pose to be printed in the paper is left to the parents, at which time some pictures may be ordered, if so desired, from the representative of United Studios.

No-Hit Game Drops Smiggens

By John Schofield

Paul Evans, mound star of the LaVictoire Rockets, after just missing in two attempts last week, finally came through with the first no-hit game ever recorded in Crawford County Softball Association play. The game also marked the defeat of Smiggens, dropped from the league.

Evans, who was the star of the American division, also starred at the plate with two triples and a single. Five men reached base for Smiggens, either on walks or as battersmen. The game started so far, Evans has given up no more than four hits in any one game.

Camp Lehman strengthened their lead in the National division to two full games with wins over LaVictoire and Maple Forest. The latter game, however, is being protested by Maple Forest. The protest will be taken up by league officials and may result in a replay from the point to the infraction. The game was close for most of the game, but Evans was lacking in these two games as a result of the teams involved being late in turning in their score-sheets.

Smiggens' bounce back from their first loss Friday night, gain an 11-1 win over Maple Forest. The game was close for most of the game, but Evans was lacking in these two games as a result of the teams involved being late in turning in their score-sheets.

Which brings to mind another happy thought. The new hospital is being built with a great deal of local talent. Contractors who are hiring local people for that work.

This past week has brought some highly interesting articles of a newspaper. The summer edition practically had a conception when the column carries items of local interest and argument. He feels that Jack Pine should write nothing but articles and items of local interest. The Grayling Post, He may be right. And yet another man, a local person, says that Jack Pine is getting dull since he stopped jumping all over the local people who needed jumping on. "as he put it. And he too, may be right. Me, I wouldn't know. True, Jack Pine doesn't criticize local problems much any more, for the simple reason that he doesn't. He's too much that is, he will always feel free to say what he feels, and will say it with an honesty of conviction that is not dictated by desires for personal vengeance. And Bob Strong has not once changed a thing I have written out of deference to those who advertise in his paper, nor has he ever asked me to say anything in this column that he personally said. And that is a great more than the editors of a lot of other weekly papers can say. When the day comes that advertising perverts the editorial values of a newspaper, you might as well say goodbye to Freedom of the Press. (And, brother, that last item is a perfect-fitting shoe for you-know-who.)

Grayling Float To Be In Cherry Festival Parade

A float carrying a large throne simulated with Grayling Winter Sports Queen Mary Richardson and her court of Alicia Hausmann, Shirley Harney Johnson, Dorothy Kolka and Jean Roberts, about the streets of Grayling in the National Cherry Festival Parade at Traverse City this week.

Les Hunter acted as chairman of the committee that arranged for the float. Others on the committee were Mrs. Les Welch, Mrs. Thomas Welsh, Eric Post, Neil Olson and Tommy Clements. George Burke gave the trailer to the Crawford County Chamber of Commerce who in turn loaned it to the committee for this event.

McEvers Motor overhauled the trailer and made it ready for the parade and the following firms donated either equipment or labor to construct the float: Highway Auto Parts, Charles Mosher, Clare Welch, McVal Lumber Co., Grayling, Grayling High School and Grayling Motor Sales. Working on the construction of the float were Les Hunter, Eric Post, Tommy Clements, Mrs. Les Hunter, Mrs. Les Welch and Mrs. Thomas Welsh.

Mrs. Carl Richardson and Mrs. Clarence Roberts will serve as escorts for the Queen and her court to the Cherry Festival Parade.

On Saturday afternoon, arrangements have been made, if the weather is good, to take the float on a tour through the streets of Grayling. If you aren't able to get over to Traverse City watch for Grayling's float on Saturday afternoon.

3 Handicapped Grayling Children Will Camp

The directors of Camp Roy-Eli have invited 1956 Grayling children to participate in the 1956 summer camp period for handicapped children. The local children were among 80 selected from Northern Michigan communities this year and will be the first from here to attend in a group.

Camp Roy-Eli is sponsored by the Civic groups in the area, by the March of Dimes and by private contributions for the children whose physical disabilities make it nearly impossible for them to be included in most summer camps.

Originally the camp was an outing for former patients at Munson Hospital at Traverse City and was conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brigrum with the assistance of hospital staff members. Since its beginning, Mr. Brigrum, who is the Physical Therapist at the hospital, has developed the camp until now it includes all of the features of other summer camps such as handicraft, fishing, boating, a trip to the music camp at Interlochen and a train trip.

The staff of doctors, nurses and instructors give their time in the interest of the children who have suffered from Polio, cerebral palsy, blindness, deafness, arthritis, rheumatic fever, muscular dystrophy and other crippling ailments.

In addition to the adult staff, many Traverse City teenagers volunteer to assist as "Teenaiders" doing such tasks as taking care of camp chores and other duties that others who cannot completely take care of themselves.

This year some 40 communities in the area will be represented when the camp opens at the Twin Lakes 4-H campsite on July 30th.

A contribution to the camp was made by the Crawford County chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis in the amount of $100.00 from 1956 March of Dimes contributions. This year the children who attended in previous years and for those who will attend this year.

Invitations have been received by the parents of Tommy Kessel, Nancy Hoffman and Mark Peterson and all of the parents have agreed to have their children participate.

Deadly Curve Claims Another Crash Victim

The curve on M-76 five miles northwest of Roscommon at the Crawford County line known as Deadman's Curve, claimed yet another life last Sunday. Mrs. Bernice Skinsley Paul, 63, a resident of Beaver Creek Township for most of her life, was the victim.

State Police from the Houghton Lake Post investigated the accident. Mrs. Paul's vehicle was headed north out of County Road 200 which leads from M-18 which comes from US-27 across the north end of Higgins Lake to M-76. According to State Police, witnesses said that Mrs. Paul stopped at the stop sign, but then drove out onto M-76 as a car coming from the north and driven by Ralph Fisher, 20, of Van Dyke came into the intersection.

Mrs. Paul's death was caused by skull fracture. Fisher and Ralph Warlick were taken to Grayling Mercy Hospital suffering from contusions, cuts and bruises. Fisher suffered chest injuries, left knee and right arm injuries. Manukowski had several lacerations about the head and face. The driver's brother, John, 17, was treated for several cuts and bruises and released. Mrs. Paul was alone in her car when it had been along in her car when it was struck.

Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon from the Soronson Funeral Home with Rev. Raymond Lamb of Gaylord officiating. Mrs. June Taylor sang "In The Garden" and "Beyond The Sunset" at the service. The interment was in Elmwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Paul was born in Owosso, Mich., on June 26, 1897 to Bertha Hallet and John R. Skinsley. She moved to Beaver Creek Township with her parents at the age of 10. She attended Lovell's School and was united in marriage on November 23, 1927 to Julius Paul who preceded her in death on June 22, 1944.

She is survived by three brothers, George of Grayling, Harold of Saginaw and Raymond of Roscommon, six nieces, two nephews, 13 grand nieces, 12 grand nephews besides Patricia, the daughter of her youngest brother, Arthur who died in 1936. Patricia was reared by Mrs. Paul as her own daughter and is now Mrs. Richard Wakeley.

Mrs. Paul's residence was on M-76 a short distance north of the accident scene. She had constructed a home on a small plot of ground that was part of her family's old homestead.

Last Monday evening's meeting that was to be held at the Tall Pine Council Boy Scout Camp at Bear Lake had to be called off due to inclement weather. The camp hasn't enough mess hall space to feed so large a group indoors. In prior years, the camp has served the club barbecued chicken which was enjoyed at outdoor picnic tables. ## Former Frederic Resident's Daughter Aids The Aged

Mrs. Frederick P. Warrick of Clarkson was honored by a news story in the Detroit News in last Sunday's edition by James A. Crowe for her work with the aged in her community.

Mrs. Warrick is the daughter of the late Harry P. Sharp who succumbed in Grayling last March 24. Her father, a retired steam fitter employed by the Ford Motor Company, made his home 3 miles north of Frederic.

Mrs. Warrick moved to Clarkson from Detroit about two and a half years ago. Seeing an old lady struggling through the snow one night with a large bag of groceries, Mrs. Warrick stopped and drove the woman to her home. This was the start of the Clarkson Pioneers Club. The club now numbers about 100 from age 60 to 97 and meets on the third Thursday of every month.

The meeting starts with a noon luncheon followed by an afternoon program of community singing, a special lecture and plenty of time for gossip about the old days.

The members are most enthusiastic about the club and many said that their lives had been so empty, but now they have their monthly meeting to look forward to each month. Mrs. Warrick organizes the meetings, arranges transportation for those who can't get there otherwise, holds birthday parties in her home for oldsters, takes them to visit each other in her station wagon, bundles them off to high school athletic events and gets out a monthly newsletter.

"Actually all I'm doing," she says, "is doing what someone had done for my mother and father, who are both now dead."

Miss Nellie Loss of Flint is a guest at the T. P. Peterson home for a visit.

Loss Of Farm Land For Suburban Homes Is Growing Problem In State

"Loss" of Good Farm Land to suburban home development is a growing problem as Michigan continues to foster a rapid industrial expansion.

Three-quarters of a million acres of farmland in the state were put to other uses between 1942 and 1956, according to the U. S. Soil Conservation Service. And this process of "swallowing up" cropland is accelerating, Edmond V. Alechin, State Extension Service community development specialist, points out.

Most affected are rural areas near cities. In addition to new industries, new employees must find housing. Since many prefer to build, the best available space is on farm lands within driving distance of the city.

A recent survey in Saginaw County showed that since 1945, 35,000 acres of rural land have been lost, primarily to suburban developments. The survey predicts there will be virtually no agriculture remaining in Saginaw Township by 1970.

Population growth throughout the state is one of the biggest factors in expanding "suburbia." Michigan's population has increased by 38 percent since 1940, according to the Detroit Board of Commerce. This is the biggest gain recorded by any industrial state in the nation.

The Board estimates there are now 7,286,500 Michigan residents. This figure has grown by 155,000 annually since 1949.

Township increases as high as 300 percent are reported in the Saginaw survey. This pattern repeats itself in other suburban areas.

A "dilemma" is facing the farmer: As suburban developments expand near his property he must resist selling his land at prices far above normal if he wishes to continue farming.

On the other hand, if he continues to farm, "suburbia" forces him to meet new and higher taxes on his property. As schools and community services expand he often must face a growing tax burden.

The best farmland is often first to be industrialized or platted in to home development loss. Level land offers lower construction costs and less water and drainage problems.

A partial solution to the problem is offered by conservation experts. They suggest community planners consider capabilities of land in planning urban expansion. There is a considerable amount of sub-marginal farm land in Michigan that can provide good, well-drained property for residential building. Use of such land, they point out, would offer more homesites without making inroads on the state's agricultural output.

Tempo is increasing among cities making plans to seek benefits of the proposed St. Lawrence Seaway.

Sault Ste. Marie hopes to incorporate its Industrial Executive Board as a non-profit foundation and raise $100,000 to promote industrial expansion. Traverse City, with a similar plan already functioning, reports considerable success.

A preliminary study of the needs of Escanaba harbor by the U. S. Army Engineers is planned. Funds for the survey were approved by the U. S. Senate committee on navigation at the request of Senator Charles E. Potter. Joint Senate and House conference committees are expected to accept the request. The study is proposed for 1957.

A three-fold program for promoting industrial development is underway at Ironwood. Active participation will come from the city, Chamber of Commerce and the Ironwood Industrial Development Corp. The hope is to promote new industry through an active advertising campaign, help in locating possible industrial sites, and financial assistance.

A municipal war has been established in Port Huron. Here too, an Industrial Development Corporation is busy attracting new industry.

Impact of a new industrial expansion will begin to hit Michigan in 1959 when the St. Lawrence Seaway is expected to be completed. Many of the state's port cities hope to have their share of industry ready when the day arrives.

Another Step Toward A Safer Michigan comes with the announcement by State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs that recruitment of an additional 168 new state troopers is now complete.

Scheduled to begin training on Oct. 1, the new recruits will augment 200 additional enlisted men who began their service this year. By 1957, Childs states that State Police will have 1,155 trained men ready to cope with Michigan's highway safety problems.

This will be supplemented on holidays as previously with 217 National Guardsmen. Childs explained that Guardsmen proved to be very effective in cutting down traffic accidents.

Keep A Man At Work...

The American system of mass production is celebrated and imitated the world around. The American system of mass retail distribution is not so well-publicized—but it equally important. In fact, mass production couldn't exist without it. For instance, to keep one man at work in the soap industry must take 6 million baths in the course of his life. To keep one man at work in the refrigerator business, 60 of the machines must be sold. To keep one man at work in stocking production, 12 thousand pairs must be made. So it goes, an endless list of things we all use. It takes a tremendously efficient and vital retail system to sell the wares our factories produce. It is an industry which works on an amazingly small unit profit—one to three or four cents on each dollar of sales depending on the kind of goods involved. And it is an industry in which there is room for all kinds and of stores to prosper—all the way from little family enterprises to the big national chains. In distribution, as in production, there is fair and active competition all along the line. That is what is for good service, a wide variety of offerings, and a low price.

A Preferred Position...

Sam M. Jones writes in National Review. "Each year the world totts up a net population gain (births minus deaths) of a little more than one person. Every year there are another 110,000 mouths to be fed. To assure the world an adequate diet, the Population Reference Bureau says that 150 square miles of new farm land should go into cultivation each day." This casts a new light on the farm surplus problem in the United States. That problem, difficult as it is, is sure to be a temporary one. In the long pull, farmers will have their jobs cut out to meet the needs of a soaring population. In the less developed countries, it is true, great quantities of new farm lands eventually can be brought under cultivation. That is certainly not a possibility here. We are still losing farm lands—to roads, industrial sites, suburbs, and so on. So far as anyone can see, our farm acreage is pretty well fixed.

What, then, will be the solution when in years ahead the pressure will be on each acre to produce more and more food and fiber? The answer is simply better farming.

The American farmer is in a preferred position in this. Of his tools, modern farm equipment stands out. It reduces costs—just as it cuts to a minimum the amount of human labor needed to perform farm tasks. And, while making greater productivity possible, it can perform the equally important duty of conserving and improving the land for future generations.

"Keep The Change"

If you've seen "Mac" Johnson this week, chances are he's told you his waitress story. For those who haven't heard:

"Mac" recently stopped at an out-of-town diner. He ordered the chef's special—and his waitress (brand new on the job) made every possible mistake. She confused the order, spilled the soup, dropped the rolls, brought him a wrong dessert.

Despite it all, "Mac" left a substantial tip. But she smiled and handed the money back. "Keep it, Mister—you've sure earned it more than I have," she said.

From where I sit, that girl deserves credit for admitting her shortcomings—something not everyone is big enough to do. For instance, I'm convinced lots of folks know they're wrong when they deny me the right to a glass of beer with my supper... just because they happen to prefer some other beverage. They wouldn't like me ordering them to accept my choice.

Calvary Baptist Church News

The Lord's Day Services were very well attended. Our Sunday school and morning worship services were capacity crowds and the evening evangelistic service was also large.

The morning message was on prayer. The text was found in James 5:16b. "The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much." In the evangelistic service we had the privilege of having Rev. Hubert Karl of Detroit, Mich., speak. Rev. Karl is the Deputation Secretary of the Rural Bible Mission, and agency for reaching and teaching children the Word of God.

Our daily Vacation Bible school will have the assistance of Rev. Karl for which we are very thankful.

Daily Vacation Bible School will convene each day this week, Monday through Friday at 2:00 o'clock until 4:30. All children are urged to attend.

Wednesday evening at 7:45 p. m. we will have our prayer and Bible study class. Thursday at 7:30 p. m. will be the service of our daily Vacation Bible school achievement program. All are invited to attend.

Our building program is progressing very well and we do praise the Lord for His goodness in it all. Next week we hope to have more information regarding our remodeling and improvement program.

A hearty invitation and welcome awaits you at the Calvary Baptist Church.

Bear Lake News

By M. D. the Roving Reporter

Gloomy Monday, lots of people up over the Fourth, so many we won't mention names but well-nigh every one. The fishing between rains was very good. Everett Worthing's catch in our cooler, was one bass 5 lbs. 2 oz., one 3 lbs. 1 oz. two 2 lb. Also some nice bluegills. Ask him where they caught them. It's Goose Lake, Duck Lake, down Miller's lane, otherwise none of your business. Also saw some nice ones from Lake Marquette and from our own Bear Lake. Dick Furtney and Art Nummer hit the jack pot with their limit of bass and bluegills and when you can talk them out of them that is fast talking.

The Bennetts were up and Claude had a bad week end — lost on every score.

No news from little Jackson, John Hartley did not report in and Newman's Cornet tells us Skip has gone to see his grandpa and see the Shippers' parade and Jean found out Jack and water, don't mix.

We had a meeting here last Monday of the Manistee River Association.

It was for planting the lakes and river, putting gravel at the public fishing site and anything that is a benefit to this area. Anyone wishing to join see Fred Bromberg from Camp Arrowhead or Dingmans. The meetings are twice a month.

Jack Pine had a gripe on the east side of town M-72 and a just one. Now I got one on the west side M-72. How many people know that the signal at the railroad tracks only comes on for a through train. I know of two people besides myself that got a terrible scare with switch trains and no signal working. Am I right or wrong on this?

G. O. C. News

Grayling Scout News

Among the boys who left Grayling at 8:00 A. M. June 25th for the Canadian fishing trip near Chapleau were Jim and Tim Perry, Ted Hall, Jerry Larson, Larry Crouch, Jack Hall, Roy Lovely, Raymond Halstead, Bill Weaver, Don Roberts, Richard Moore, George Ginterick, Tom Galvani and Joe Rozenek. The drivers for the trip were Clarence Roberts, Claude Lytle and Gary Worden.

We arrived in Mackinaw City at 6:10 a. m. and had breakfast there. We then boarded the boat and went to St. Ignace. The trip was quiet and the water smooth. We arrived in St. Ignace at 8:00 a. m. and proceeded to Saint Ste. Marie, going directly to the ferry and into the Canadian Soo. On arrival we went through customs getting cleared about 10:30 a. m. After purchasing fishing licenses for the group, we climbed back into the cars and drove to Thessalon, arriving at about 12:30 p. m. We had dinner while there. We then turned North again and proceeded toward Chapleau. Although the trip was long and rough, everyone seemed to enjoy it. The scenery was beautiful and the weather was fine.

We arrived at Moody Lake about 6:30 p. m. only to find no camping spot available. We then drove to 7 Mile Lake and set up camp. We then had supper. Some fishing was done, but everyone was tired and turned in early.

Several of the boys talked about going fishing at 4:00 a. m. the following morning, but Claude and I had the pancakes and bacon ready before we saw anyone out of their tents and that was about 7:30 a. m.

Those not on details went fishing and I went to town for groceries and a travel permit, taking several boys with me. On return we found Claude and a few of the boys building a ladder to make our descent to the lake easier.

About that time the weather was looking bad, so we proceeded to make a cover for our kitchen unit, so that we would not have to wait in the rain during the preparation of our meals.

Tuesday found the fishing good, but the rain kept most of the boys near camp. Tom Galvani seemed to spend most of his time cutting wood. Excitement reigned the camp today also when a bull-moose was sighted.

Pancakes, eggs, and bacon were on the menu again Wednesday morning and everyone was ready and willing to eat a big breakfast. Claude then drove to town in the station wagon taking along those who wished to see the town. Some groceries were forgotten, so I went into town in the afternoon, but found the stores closed. The rain continued, but just the same three boat loads of boys went 9 1/2 miles to another lake, where they sighted another moose.

On Thursday morning, Gary found the oil had run out of his car, so we drove into town to get oil. After he had that in his car he drove back to get the oil-pail fixed. While Gary was gone we started to pack up, ready to start South, but we left the tent up until Gary returned with his car. We then had lunch, packed the trailer, and started for the Canadian Soo.

We had a big bang with five crackers before getting to the river.

We arrived at the Soo at 6:30 p. m., went through Customs and arrived in the American Soo at 7:30 p. m. going directly to Conservation headquarters. We left our sleeping bags and went to dinner and a movie.

The following morning we had our breakfast in the American Soo, visited the Locks, chatted for about two hours and started for St. Ignace where we had our lunch. We arrived in Grayling at 5:30 p. m., a tired but happy group.

We would like to express our deep appreciation to those who responded so generously to the letters sent out by the Kiwanis Club in connection with the annual river cleanup. Among those are: Herb Snatter, H. Roessler, William Mays, Mrs. S. Shaw, Claude Lytle, Al Farkas, Mort Neff, Art Pierpont, Mrs. S. Jennings, H. Hestfield, Bernice Fowler, Lawrence Hunter, Ronald Beumann, Vincent W. McKoyen, Stanley Redfern, Earl Madison, Lacey Stephan, Dr. Leonard Allison, Stanley Madison, Jack Mason, Clayton Brysolt, Wesley LaGrow, Dr. J. F. Cook, Mrs. Madeline Wessel, Ed Hoffman, Franklin Hill, Nelda Ballard, Down River, Plines, Art Williamson, Mrs. Shaw Camp Grant, Mr. and Mrs. How, Will Shaw, Mr. Wiseloge, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Myers, James Wakeley, Nina Rayburn, Mrs. C. Evans, Edwin Marshall, Jr., H. B. Park, L. W. Siewell, Milton Knight, H. B. Hooper.

Cadillac

His Last Switch in Motor Cars!

We have no way of knowing, of course, how many different makes of motor cars this gentleman has owned through the years.

But we're willing to bet that he has now made his last switch in motor cars!

For this time it's a Cadillac! And it is historically true that once a motorist makes the move to the "car of cars", he is usually a Cadillac owner for life.

What are the reasons for this great devotion and loyalty? Well, let us count them off.

First of all, there are the things which everyone recognizes in Cadillac. There is its great beauty... its matchless luxury... and the unquestioned respect which the car commands the world over.

Then there are those qualities with which anyone who has ever driven a Cadillac is familiar.

There is its marvelous comfort and ease of handling... its magnificent power and performance... and its wonderful balance and agility.

And, finally, there are those things which only Cadillac owners themselves can fully appreciate. There is the car's remarkable economy of operation and upkeep—its incredible longevity—and its marvelous resale value.

Incidentally, you will find that we have recently made two additions to this list of things you get when you make your decision for Cadillac.

We're talking about prompt delivery and a generous trade-in allowance!

Better come in while the circumstances are so favorable—and make your last switch in motor cars!

happy vacations. begin in a Chevy

You'll love to travel in it, because it loves to travel! When you get this Chevrolet out on the road, you'll want to keep going—and so will the whole family.

Of course, even in a Chevrolet the happiest vacations may involve one or two minor problems. Like fidgety small fry who want gallons of water and keep asking if you're almost there. The big things, though, are beautifully taken care of by this roomy Chevrolet's smooth and easy way of going. That's for sure.

The fact is, few cars at any price hold the road with Chevy's grace, with its solid feeling of stability. And with horsepower up to 225, Chevrolet moves out like a whiplash, for safer passing. It's no wonder that so many people who used to buy higher priced cars are changing to Chevrolet! Stop by soon for a ride.
